

Periodicals Received

This is the current list of periodicals available for review in Computing Reviews. International standard serial numbers (ISSNs) are provided to facilitate obtaining copies of articles or subscriptions. An electronic version is available online at http://computingreviews.com/masthead/CR_periodicals2017.pdf.

We welcome suggestions of periodicals that should be considered for systematic review, as well as individual papers or publications that particularly merit review. Please send email with complete information (title, author, name of journal, issue in which paper appears, publisher, and ISSN if possible) to: editorial@computingreviews.com.

This list supersedes the one published in the October 2016 issue of Computing Reviews.
